

BOSTON TOWN RINGS

FIFTY-THREE THOUSAND ENDEAV-ORS ARE THERE

SUCCESS PAST HOPE

THIS IS THE BURDEN OF PRES-IDENT CLARKE'S REPORT.

MANY MAMMOTH MEETINGS HELD

OVERFLOWS AND RALLIES RELIEVE SURPLUS ENTHUSIASM.

Stirring Addresses Evoke the Cheers which are Just Ready to Come, Anyway —San Francisco in '97.

Boston, July 11.—All Boston has resounded with the enthusiasm of the great army of young Christians now within its gates. The splendid welcome that today was officially extended to the 53,000 delegates to the grand Christian Endeavor convention has glorified their hearts and tonight three magnificent divisions of the multitude praised God in song and prayer. Even the immensity of the enthusiasm that prevailed today at the mammoth meetings of the Christian Endeavor and the Mechanics building and two great tents, Williston and Endeavor, was exceeded tonight by more mammoth gatherings at the same places.

Every address delivered this evening was of importance and interest. At the Mechanics building, Rev. Francis E.
Clark, D. D., of Boston, founder and president of the society, delivered his annual address. The address was also read in tent Williston, by Rev. H. Mc Ewan, Ph. D., of Washington, D. C., tent Endeavor by Professor James Lewis Howe of Lexington, Ky. Thus it was heard by twenty-nine thousand people, for in each of the tents the Endeavors were 10,000 strong and in the Mechanics building were gathered 19,000 more.

STORY OF SUCCESS.

The story it contained was one of successes that exceeded hope, and almost audacious in its extent, and it evoked the utmost enthusiasm, which was expressed in such hostilities as the modern Athens never held before.

The meeting in tent Williston tonight was perhaps the greatest of the three.
The address of Rev. H. McEwan, D. D., of Washington, D. C., was a great crowd; an address by Rev. T. H. Hamlin, D. D., of Washington, D. C., whose subject was "Washington '97" was a very strong effort, while Mr. W. H.
Pennell of Washington, D. C., spoke in tent Endeavor on the same subject.

Addresses by Dwight L. Moody at the Mechanics building, by John C. Woolley, the noted Chicago temperance lecturer, who spoke in tent Endeavor on "The Christian Endeavor vs. the Salutation," were also great attractions. The choruses, too, at all three meetings began. Eight hundred singers were included in that at Mechanics hall, and each of the tents had a quota of not less than 500.

General Secretary John Willis Baez of Boston preside at Mechanics hall.
General Treasurer William Shawd of Boston led the meeting in tent Williston and Trustee Rev. J. Z. Tyler, D. D., of Cleveland, directed affairs in tent Endeavor.

NOON AND AFTER RALLIES.

The denominational rallies held this afternoon in twenty-seven churches, halls and tents were attended by thousands of delegates belonging to the twenty-seven denominations represented at the convention. More than 100 clergymen and laymen spoke at these meetings on almost as many subjects.

Dr. Clarke's report was read at the tents. The first person who signed the active membership pledge at the tent Williston church, Portland, Me., on February 2, 1891, Mr. F. H. Farnell, of Portland, Me., was present.

IN THE TENT WILLISTON.

As the throng were pouring into tent Endeavor they were greeted by rousing songs which were given under the direction of Professor J. S. Foster of Washington, D. C., and when Chairman J.
Z. Tyler of Cleveland stepped upon the platform the vast seating capacity tested its fullest limit. Fully 10,000 persons being present. After singing the hymn "Bringing in the Sheaves," Rev. W. B. Milligan of Allegheny, Pa., took the pulpit.

Rev. W. T. McEwan, Ph. D., D. D., of New York then read the annual address of President Clarke and Rev. H.
McEwan, D. D., of Washington, D. C., of the Christian Endeavor vs. the Salutation, was also a great attraction.

Kansas City, July 11.—Captain R. B.
Anderson, who at one time was one of the most prominent traders on the board of trade here, has been missing since last Tuesday night and it is believed he has committed suicide. He left his boarding house Tuesday night, telling the landlady he was going out for a walk and has not been seen since.
Three letters were found in his room.

One was addressed to his mother in Eastport, Maine, another to his landlady and a third to a local commission firm. The letter to Mrs. Anderson was mailed to her without being opened. The letter to the commission company stated that life had become a burden to him and that he had decided to commit suicide. The only reason given in the letter for his contemplated suicide was the fear that he might lose his mother's money in unfortunate speculations.

Captain Anderson came west about twenty years ago from Eastport, Me.
His mother was a wealthy woman and it is alleged that he had lost more than a million dollars in eastern speculations.
He was a real estate boomer and he lost his money in the purchase of land in the West. It is stated that he lost $500,000 by the failure of a Boston bank and lost heavily in Atlantic steamship stock.

Anderson is said to have had $300,000 in his own right at one time, but most of this he lost in the purchase of a bank in San Francisco some time ago.

So far as known he has not lost more than a million dollars in the purchase of land in the West. It is supposed that the remorse caused by having lost a quarter of a million dollars of his mother's money in the purchase of land in the West has driven him to this step.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 11.—The indictment of E. Mayne for attempting to bribe members of the city government, by the San Diego grand jury has caused his career to be looked up, with the result that a sensational story is revealed. Mayne was formerly a boomer in Omaha. He is reputed to have been one of the most successful real estate speculators in the West. In a recent time he became a dealer in real estate in San Diego. He is now a member of the city government.
